HOUTHOFF BURUMA REINFORCES MARKET POSITION AND FROM NOW ON WILL BE KNOWN AS HOUTHOFF

As of today, Houthoff Buruma will be known by the name Houthoff. We are pleased to give you, as a valued friend, notice of this exciting development.

Over the past decades, Houthoff has developed into one of the leading law firms in the Netherlands. With our international branches, representatives programme and International Friends strategy, we have expanded to become an internationally operating organisation.

Since our foundation, we have remained independent, and we are proud of that. But this doesn't mean that we can rest on our laurels. With our brand promise Going Beyond, we express our ambition to continue going the extra mile for our clients. We help our clients to move forward at critical moments, with practical solutions for complex legal problems.

Edward de Bock, Managing Partner of Houthoff

"Going Beyond is both a promise to our clients and the labour market, as well as our mission to always go that extra mile. By choosing the name Houthoff, we are keeping a name by which we are already well known in the market and which will be much easier for our international practice."

If you would like to know more about our mindset and ambition, and what this could mean for you and your clients, visit our website at www.houthoff.com.

With best wishes,

Michiel Pannekoek
Chief International Officer
