TechLaw Group, Inc. JENNER&BLOCK LLP

353 N. Clark St., Chicago, IL 60654

TechLaw Group, Inc.

Founded in 1986, TechLaw Group, Inc. is one of the oldest international networks of law firms dedicated to enhancing the practice of technology law through the sharing of best practices, exchange of new ideas and access to more than 8,100 lawyers familiar with technology in more than 35 countries around the globe. Our 21 member firms are largely non-competitive, and thus the mutually advantageous relationships built through the organization serve both our member firms and their clients in ways that larger organizations with more general interests cannot.

Jenner & Block LLP

Founded in 1914, Jenner & Block is a national law firm of approximately 480 attorneys. Our firm has been widely recognized for producing outstanding results in corporate transactions and securing significant litigation victories from the trial level through the United States Supreme Court. Companies and individuals around the world trust Jenner & Block with their most sensitive and consequential matters. Our clients range from the top ranks of the Fortune 500, large privately held corporations and financial services institutions to emerging companies, family-run businesses and individuals.

We have earned our reputation as a litigation powerhouse. The 350 attorneys in our nationally recognized litigation department have won impressive victories in complex and challenging cases in a broad range of substantive areas of law and across a wide variety of industries, before federal, state and administrative courts and in arbitrations. We have achieved landmark rulings on behalf of clients in matters before the United States Supreme Court — our appellate advocates have presented 25 oral arguments to the Court in the last 10 terms, and we also have an extensive amicus practice.

A commitment to public service is part of the DNA of our firm. We are known for our long tradition of pro bono advocacy, as well as service to the bar and to our communities. The American Lawyer magazine has ranked Jenner & Block as the Number One pro bono firm in the country five times, most recently in 2012. Other accolades have come from The National Law Journal, which named the firm to its 2011 "Pro Bono Hot List," and Law360, which has recognized the firm as a top "Pro Bono Firm" for three consecutive years since 2010.

Many organizations have recognized us for the pro bono work we do. The United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois and the Chicago Chapter of the Federal Bar Association honored a firm team with the 2012 Award for Excellence in Pro Bono Service. The firm has received the prestigious Pro Bono Publico Award from the American Bar Association, the Pro Bono Institute's John H. Pickering Award, the Public Interest Law Initiative's Pro Bono Initiative Award, the DC Bar's Pro Bono Law Firm of the Year Award and numerous others. In addition, many lawyers in the firm have received individual awards for the pro bono work they have done.

The firm's overall achievement is well noted. The American Lawyer named Jenner & Block to its A-List in 2013, recognizing it as among the top 20 law firms in the United States judged best at balancing the practice of law with their obligations to the profession. The honor reflects our commitment to exceeding clients' expectations, investing in our people, increasing diversity in the legal profession and helping those with the greatest need for legal representation through pro bono service. This marks the second consecutive year that Jenner & Block has been named to the list.
